

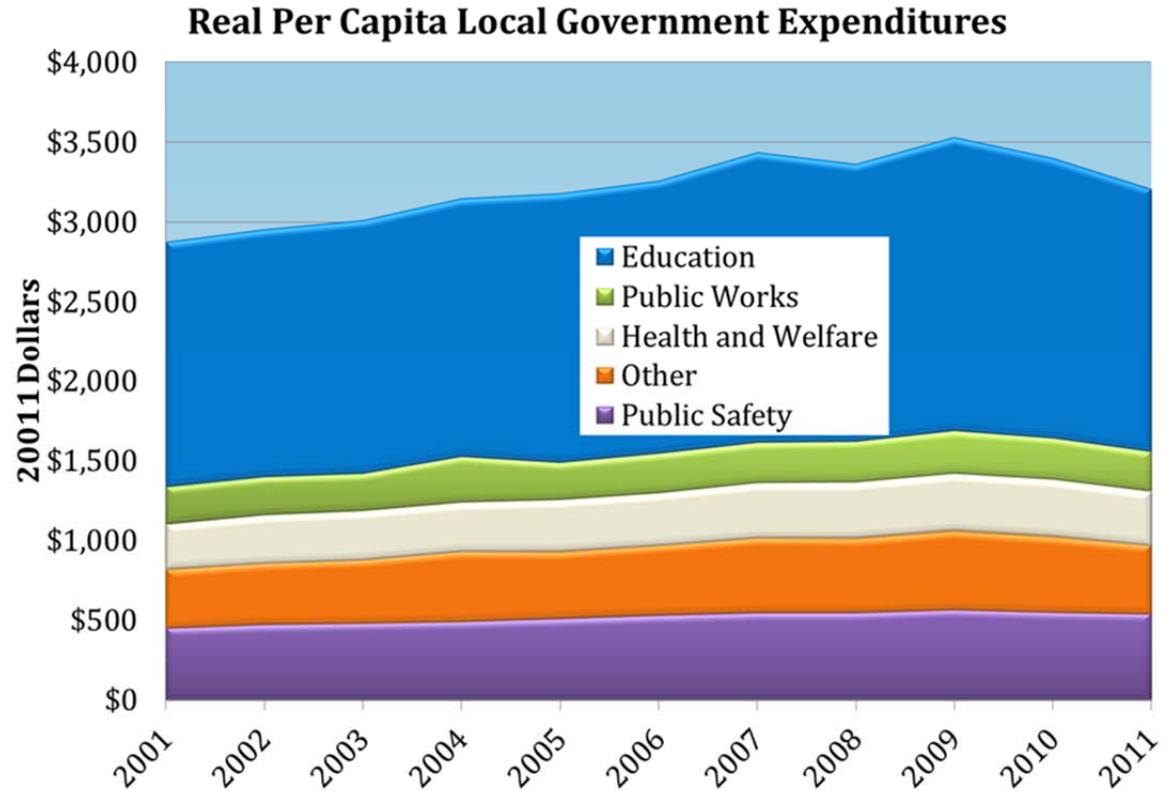

Figure 6.4 Expenditure Categories for Local Governments in Hampton Roads

Why is it important?

Local governments provide a variety of services to their citizenry. The provision of services is based on federal and state mandates and the demands from residents and businesses. Services are constrained by limited government revenues.

How are we doing?

Over half of all local government expenditures in Hampton Roads are spent on education. Recent decreases in revenues have reduced funding for public works and other projects.

Source: Auditor of Public Accounts, Weldon Cooper Center, HRPDC