

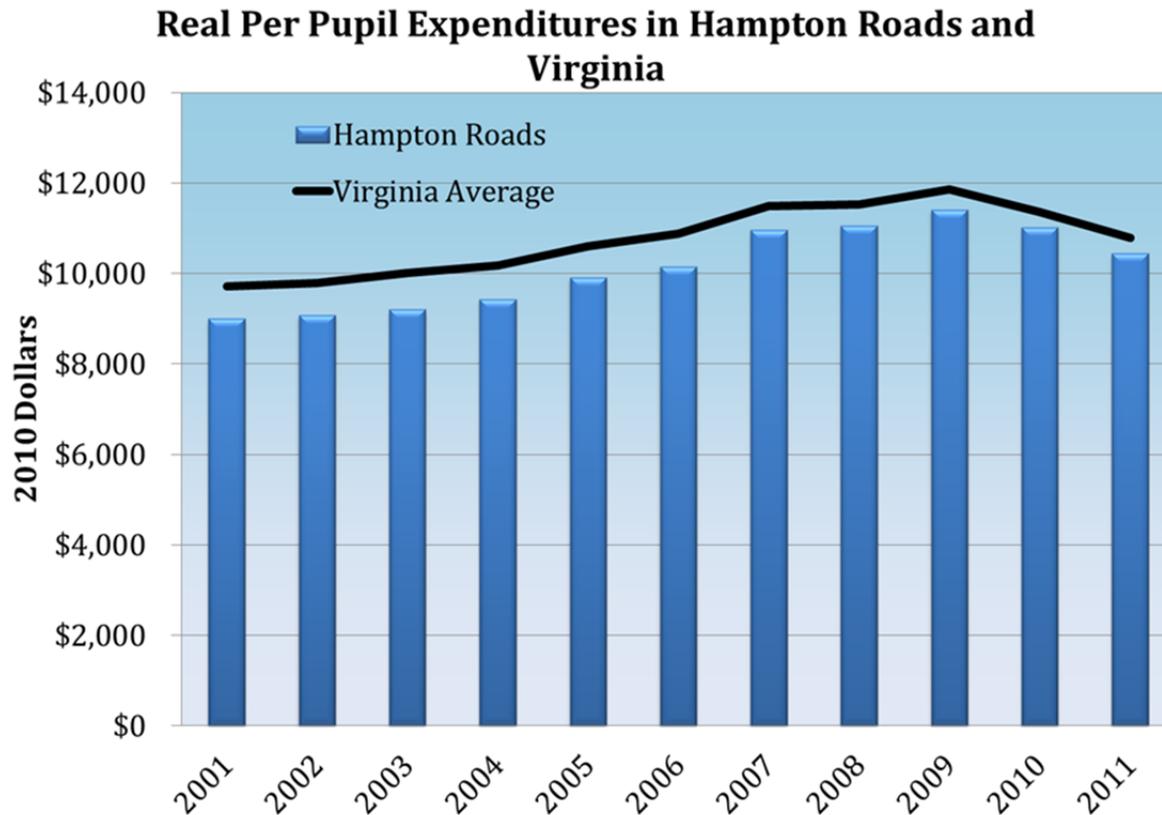

Figure 6.7 Expenditures Per Pupil in Hampton Roads and Virginia

Source: Virginia Department of Education, Weldon Cooper Center, HRPDC

Why is it important?

Education expenditures reflect on the cost and priorities of the service area. Figure 6.7 illustrates how local expenditures compare to the state average.

How are we doing?

Per pupil education expenditures in Hampton Roads remain lower than the state average. Hampton Roads localities and the state have reduced spending on education over the past year which tracks students through the school system.