

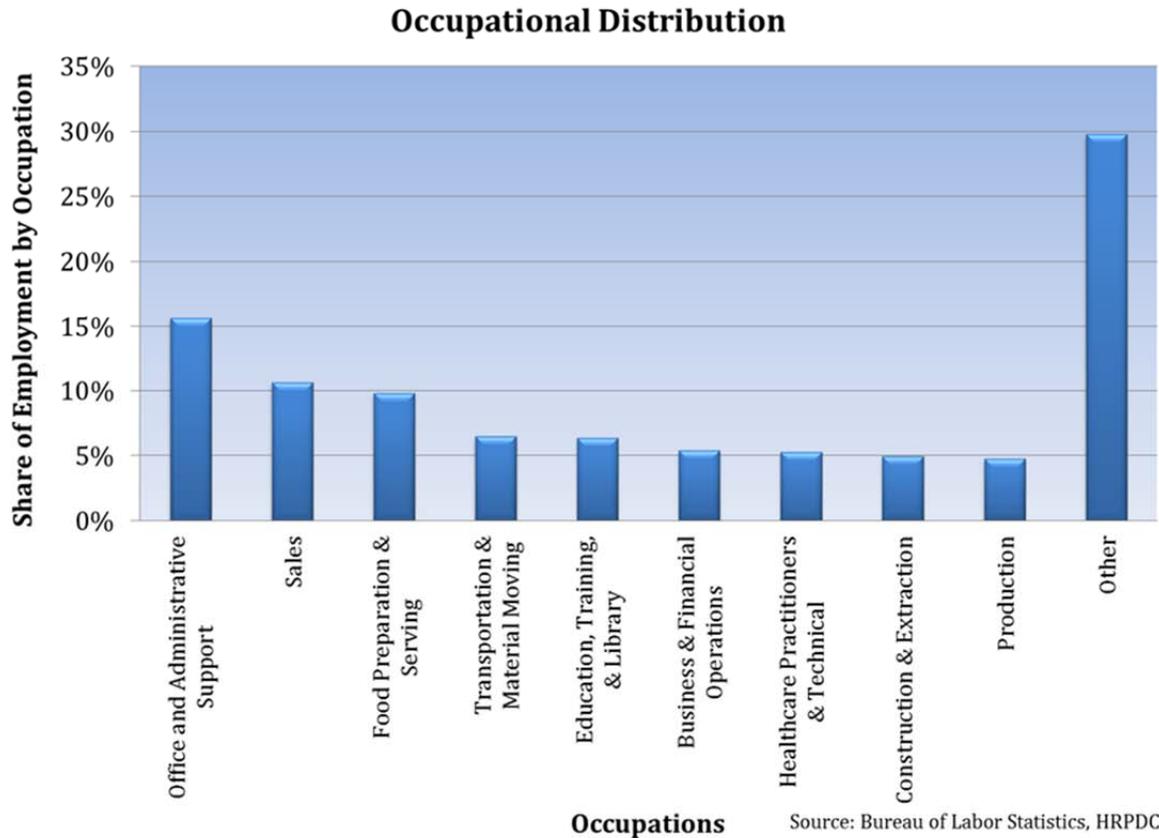

Figure 3.9 Distribution of Occupations in Hampton Roads

Why is it important?

Employment is often classified by industry, although persons seeking employment typically search by occupation. Figure 3.9 illustrates the occupational and skills distribution of persons working in Hampton Roads.

How are we doing?

Roughly 15.8% of workers in Hampton Roads are employed in office and administrative support occupations. Sales and food related occupations round out the top three occupational categories.